DIRECTOR-COACH ROB WALLER

ROB WALLER has been inducted into the Pennsylvania Wrestling Hall of Fame, the Southwest Regional NJCAA Hall of Fame, and the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame and is a 2009 inductee into the State University of New York at Delhi Athletic Hall of Fame. Forty two of Coach Waller's wrestlers have gone on to wrestle at the collegiate level, twenty-eight on the Division I level. He is one of the most successful coaches in PA history.

- 1970 NJCAA National Champion, 142 lbs.
- Two time Olympic finalist: 1972 and 1976
- Head Clinician and Director of the All American Wrestling Camp since 1973.
- Head Coach Pennsylvania Junior National Freestyle Team 2001 National Champions
- Coach Waller's wrestlers have earned nine NCAA All-American awards and three NCAA Championships.

The truest test of his coaching ability is the fact that several of his wrestlers have become Coaches on the collegiate, high school and junior high school level, the majority as head Coaches. Several of Coach Waller's wrestlers currently serve as youth coaches, encouraging and teaching future wrestlers.

Camp will be limited to 60 wrestlers***
